Don't Let This Be the End

New Found Glory

Yes, your motives are tasteless But your mouth is so bittersweet When my worst fears surround me I'll just wait for you to sweep me right off my feet

And your face turns blush red As you scream for forgiveness The mistakes you can't forget Is the regret that you'll live with

Hey We're starting to break up We're starting to break up So please don't let this be the end

I'm not afraid of the consequence
I'll take the blame for it all
Oh, for the sake of the argument
I'll just wait for my conscience to call

Hey We're starting to break up We're starting to break up So please don't let this be the end

We're starting to break up We're starting to break up We're starting to break up So please don't let this be the end

This is something new, oh And it's not what I'm used to, oh This is something new And I just might end up losing you

Hey We're starting to break up We're starting to break up So please, don't let this be the end

Please don't let this be the end Please don't let this be the end Please don't let this be the end Please don't let this be the end

All yours, all that we've done (We're starting to break up) Can't forget the places that you have been (We're starting to break up) I know that I'll see you again (See you again)
