

I'll Never Love Again

New Found Glory

You don't have to settle for me at all
I'll never be the one you want
I'll never ever be the one under your arms

And I don't have the face to turn heads
Or the body that cuts loose ends
I swear I need to get a hold again

I can't get to you
I swear I've tried
If I can't get to you
I'll never love again

I'm not comfortable in my own skin
I'm ashamed of being myself
I wear my shame, I wear it all too well

And I don't have the words to work this out
Your reactions fill with doubt
I am shallow, this is what I've found

I can't get to you
I swear I've tried
If I can't get to you
I'll never love again

I can't get to you
I swear I've tried
If I can't get to you
I'll never love again

And you leave me with no choice
But to blow this out of the water
Now you leave me with no choice

If I can't get to you
I swear I've tried
If I can't get to you
I'll never love again

If I can't get to you
I swear I've tried
If I can't get to you
I'll never love again
