I still get lost, caught in a daze,
Tongue tied, just like the very first day
I saw you and I'm so amazed
'Cause the look that got me twisted still hasn't changed
Your sexy eyes never lie,
Baby, I lose myself (when they open)
Girl, forget about goin' out
Baby, I'd rather not (so, I'm hoping)
R: I could just stare at you forever (oh, baby)
   I can be here with you doing whatever (my lady)
   It's not the way you look that brings me to my knees,
   It's the way you look at me
   I could just stare at you forever
   If forever you were staring at me
What do you see? I can't figure it out
You're talking to my heart without making a sound
I can't lose when I'm caught in your eyes
(I feel like superman) got me up in the sky
Your sexy eyes never lie
Baby, I lose my ground (you're so gorgeous, oh)
Girl, forget about goin' out
Baby, I want you now
R:
Baby, keep the lights on
I'm gonna stare at you all night long
And we'll keep rocking 'till the sun shines
Waiting 'till the moonlight to do it again
R:
