

You came to me because I'm not like you
I came to you because you're not like me
But there's a reef of jagged rocks
Between the shoreline and the sea

Yes, I forget the things that you cannot forget
You say the things that I will not say
And there's a smear of blood red sky
Between the nighttime and the day

Stop blowing away, find a way through
The stars that we are following are
The ones that move in circles around the sky

You needed me because I'm not like you
And yes, I needed you because you're not like me
And the waves will forever break
Between the shoreline and the sea

Stop blowing away, find a way through
The stars that we are following are
The ones that move in circles around the sky for us tonight
