Drifts

New Model Army

You came to me because I'm not like you I came to you because you're not like me But there's a reef of jagged rocks
Between the shoreline and the sea

Yes, I forget the things that you cannot forget You say the things that I will not say And there's a smear of blood red sky Between the nighttime and the day

Stop blowing away, find a way through
The stars that we are following are
The ones that move in circles around the sky

You needed me because I'm not like you
And yes, I needed you because you're not like me
And the waves will forever break
Between the shoreline and the sea

Stop blowing away, find a way through
The stars that we are following are
The ones that move in circles around the sky for us tonight
