Ultraviolence

Who saw those dark eyes Who saw those dark eyes These years gone by Deep within Burn my skin All those years gone by In the heat of the night All those years gone by

Who felt those cold hands Who felt those cold hands Touch my skin Deep within Burn my soul Fell to the ground Where I was found All those years ago All those tears ago All those years ago

Everybody makes mistakes Everybody makes mistakes Even me Just be free This is a place Where in the end It happens in Our world within

Time to go Time to go New Order
