Die for You

New Politics

She had me hooked like a psyched up junkie A perfect dose, if you know what I mean I ran a line like a toxic monkey An appetite for her sweet medicine You keep your eyes shut and you play with my mind You let my thoughts rot and you keep them frozen in time You seduce your victims, devour your prey When you shoot them up, they can't escape

Just look around There's not a sound But when it hits you You know that you and I are lost Beyond the rescue So let it through 'Cause nothing matters anymore You know I would have died for you

Do you know, do you know That I would have died Do you know That I would have died for you

She makes my heartbeat rattle and roll A fatal touch that stings to the bones Just like a snake she'll poison my soul I don't know, I don't know i-i-i-I don't know what to do You're just fueling my addiction Fooling my predictions Flipping my condition You seduce your victims, devour your prey When you shoot them up, they can't escape

Just look around There's not a sound But when it hits you You know that you and I are lost Beyond the rescue So let it through 'Cause nothing matters anymore You know I would have died for you

My pockets are broke I got no platinum and gold The police got the power so I've run out of hope My profit is so sweet I'm paying for sontes If you don't understand I hope you die on your own

Just look around There's not a sound But when it hits you You know that you and I are lost Beyond the rescue So let it through 'Cause nothing matters anymore You know I would have died for you 'Cause nothing matters anymore You know I would have died for you Do you know, Do you know That I would have died Do you know that I would have died for you
