

Tonight You're Perfect

New Politics

Should I believe in the world, momma?
Should I give up and hide or should I stay and fight?
Should I believe in the rules, momma?
Tell me if I should run or learn to shoot a gun

I don't know what to believe, momma
Yeah, I'm down on my knees,
I'm begging please
Help me back on my feet, momma
'Cause I need someone to believe, believe, believe in

Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love with the stars in your eyes
Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love but only for the night
(Tonight you're perfect)
(Tonight you're perfect)
Only for the night
(Tonight you're perfect)
(Tonight you're perfect)
I feel perfect too!

You won't believe what I've seen, momma
There's a fire inside, there's a storm on the rise
It's in the air that we breathe, momma
Can I speak out my mind in these changing times?

Give me a reason to be, momma
'Cause I'm down on my knees,
I'm begging please
Help me back on my feet, momma
'Cause I need someone to believe, believe, believe in

Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love with the stars in your eyes
Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love but only for the night
(Tonight you're perfect)
(Tonight you're perfect)
Only for the night
(Tonight you're perfect)
(Tonight you're perfect)
I feel perfect too!

Only for the night
Only for the night
Only for the night

Tonight you're perfect,
I wanna fall in love with the stars in your eyes
Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love but only for the night
