

Gotta Stay High

New Radicals

One, two, tree, four!
oooooh...

I saw your eyes
I had to run away
I fell too deep in love
there were no words to say Yeah, yeah, yeah
I just had to get high

One look inside
and I knew right away
I felt too much
I did not have the strenght
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I just ran to get high

But lover there's something about your pushing me
pulling me that's saying don't go away

I saw your eyes
fell back to yesterday
One lonely child
until you left me stay Yeah, yeah, yeah
I had no one on my side

Good God, I think I'm falling
Two weak to stay
too scared to love again
The damn has broke
My soul is spilling all over your hands take a look in my eyes

But lover, there's something about your pushing me
pulling me that's saying don't go away

One, two, three, four!

I see your eyes
I'll never run away
Too deep in love
Got just five words to say
Yeah, yeah, yeah

You just gotta stay high
