

Resurrection

New Years Day

I've got this beating in my chest, it tells me you're my only I feel the rhythm in my wrist, it's fading out but slowly don't let me go
please tell me this could not be cause I'll fade away
to the last chapter of our story

I'd rather drown in your arms, they're shaking my hands are cold so hold me tight I'd rather give you my heart, it's breaking So won't you give me one last bite and bring my back to life bring me back to life

I've got this feeling I'm in love tonight the dawn is breaking I feel this racing through my blood our souls are for the taking don't let me go
please tell me this could not be
'cause I'll fade away
to the last chapter of our story

my hands are cold so hold me tight
I'd rather give you my heart, it's breaking
So wont you give me one last bite
