

Save Myself From Me

New Years Day

I'm a hostage inside my mind
No negotiations, no one gets out alive
I'm a prisoner inside my hand
There is no release, I've lost the Skeleton Key

There's no escape I'll find a way
Betrayed by hope and cursed by fate
Got one last chance, and now I'm not afraid
To save myself from me
(save myself from me)

Invisible expectations
Envisioning how this ends
Troubled from both directions
Some faults you can't correct

I will learn how to see the signs
They're so far away
I know I have to try to open up my eyes

There's no escape I'll find a way
Betrayed by hope and Cursed by fate
Got one last chance, and now I'm not afraid
To save myself from me
(save myself from me)
Save myself from me!

With nowhere to go
Derailed off the road
There's nothing left for me to turn back for

A new tragedy
Is staring at me
There's dirt in disaster
But I'm finally clean

There's no escape I'll find a way
Betrayed by hope and Cursed by fate
Got one last chance, and now I'm not afraid
To save myself from me
(save myself from me)
Save myself from me!
