Save Myself From Me

New Years Day

I'm a hostage inside my mind No negotiations, no one gets out alive I'm a prisoner inside my hand There is no release, I've lost the Skeleton Key

There's no escape I'll find a way Betrayed by hope and cursed by fate Got one last chance, and now I'm not afraid To save myself from me (save myself from me)

Invisible expectations Envisioning how this ends Troubled from both directions Some faults you can't correct

I will learn how to see the signs They're so far away I know I have to try to open up my eyes

There's no escape I'll find a way Betrayed by hope and Cursed by fate Got one last chance, and now I'm not afraid To save myself from me (save myself from me) Save myself from me!

With nowhere to go Derailed off the road There's nothing left for me to turn back for

A new tragedy Is staring at me There's dirt in disaster But I'm finally clean

There's no escape I'll find a way Betrayed by hope and Cursed by fate Got one last chance, and now I'm not afraid To save myself from me (save myself from me) Save myself from me!
