

Baby, Tell Me What I'm On

New York Dolls

Baby
Baby, I'm so gone
Oh, baby
Tell me what I'm on
Don't wanna make a scene
Don't wanna be cordial
Time tears itself apart
Like a dagger in my heart, my heart
Baby
Tell me what I'm on
Baby
Is it twilight or the dawn?
Curtain of universe is taunting me tonight
Torment of the days leaving me half crazed
What does the future mean here in eternity?
Somewhere in between, unreal ecstasy
Baby
Tell me what I'm on
Baby
Is it twilight or the dawn?
Baby
Tell me what I'm on
What good is consciousness?
A bottomless abyss
Like a bloke in dark
Whose eyes have fallen inside, inside
Baby
Tell me what I'm on
Baby
Is it twilight or the dawn?
Now that the guards are dead
Don't say that it's the end
Dissolving in my head
Bring back your love to me, baby
Baby
You know it's hurting me
Baby
Bring back your love to me
Baby
You know it's hurting me
Baby
