

Lost A Girl

New Young Pony Club

I'm kissing your hand, I'm kissing your hand
I'm making you smile, why am I doing that?
I like you a lot, I guess I forgot
I don't like you much now

I'm kissing your hand, I'm kissing your hand
I'm making you smile, why am I doing that?
I like you a lot, I guess I forgot
I don't like you much now

La la lala. Words go too far
Why can't we say when it's dark
The sticks and stones do play their part
Why can't we say? (Why can't we say?)

Hey!
Looks like you've lost a girl
Looks like you've lost a girl
Looks like you've lost a girl

Watch as the wings unfold
Hey! ooh oo ooo...

I want to pretend, I want to pretend
The shape of the past could walk in the present tense
I'm shaking my head, you've certainly said
I don't like you much now

La la lala. Words go too far
Why can't we say when it's dark
The sticks and stones do play their part
Why can't we say? (Why can't we say?)

Hey!
Looks like you've lost a girl
Looks like you've lost a girl
Looks like you've lost a girl

Watch as the wings unfold
Hey! ooh oo ooo...

Looks like you've lost a girl (Looks like you've lost a girl)
Looks like you've lost a girl (Looks like you've lost a girl)
Looks like you've lost a girl
Watch as the wings unfold?
