

Things the land forgot
The way the summer starts and stops
No better
Streets are melting off
Does the burning throng satisfy the sun
Like pleasure

Cause you're stone
That's what you are
Cause you're stone
Stone, that's what you are
Stone, stone, that's what you are
You are you are you are
Cause you're stone

Days are moving on,
Kids adrift like unmanned ships
At leisure
Shirts are skiving off
As the golden glow of the evening shows
Like treasure

Cause you're stone
That's what you are
Cause you're stone
Stone, that's what you are
Stone, stone, that's what you are
You are you are you are
Cause you're stone

You know better
You know better
You know better

Cause you're stone
That's what you are
Cause you're stone
Stone, that's what you are
Stone, stone, that's what you are
You are you are you are

Cause you're stone
Cause you're stone
