

The Bomb

New Young Pony Club

You know you really were the bomb
Atomic infamy
You really have to display information
To discover relativity
You know you really were the bomb
Atomic infamy
You really have to display information
To discover relativity
You no faker, love and peacemaker
Come on take a moment with your enemy

Ahaahaha don't speak cause your mind is amazing
Ahaahaha don't speak cause your mind is amazing

And on the atoll of desire
Battle was fought and won
Who took advantage and who was defenseless
Oh no peppermint girls not done
Remember this emotional equation
Don't test the moment when you break the sun

Ahaahaha don't speak cause your mind is amazing
Ahaahaha don't speak cause your mind is amazing

Dancing you are tearing it up you know
Dancing you are tearing it up you know
Dancing you are tearing it up you know
Dancing you are tearing it up you know

Don't speak cause your mind is amazing
Dancing you are tearing it up you know
Dancing you are tearing it up
Don't speak cause your mind is amazing
Dancing, dancing, dancing''
