

You say My love goes away
I say it's there forever
I know you'll see the day
That love will leave you never
I wait around the river bend
Lead Me through the rapids ahead
And when the waters rise
I'll be there

I can be the One you turn to
I'm not a god of wood or stone
Trust in Me and I will show you
My love will never leave you alone

Don't let your faith be shattered
Stand firm on that shaky ground
Reach out, give your praise to Me
Let Me take your heavy burden

I see the time ahead
I stop the danger in the night
I know your breaking strain
I'll be there

I can be the One you turn to
I'm not a god of wood or stone
Trust in Me and I will show you
My love will never leave you alone
