Anything But You

NewSong

I've got a good car that gets me where I'm going I've got a good house that I can go home to But all these good things this world has to offer I'm just using as I'm passing through

There's so much about this world that can distract me So Lord, I pray that I will keep my eyes on You

Anything but You, is only temporary Anything but You will quickly fade away I'm not trustin' in, dependin' on, believin' in, relying on Anyone or anything but You, anything but You

Life has a strange way of gettin' complicated All that's certain is that nothin' stays the same But I'm not worried 'cause you promised You'd be with me And I know that's one thing this world cannot change

There's so much that's tryin' to distract me Lord I pray each day I keep my eyes on You

Anything but You, is only temporary Anything but You will quickly fade away I'm not trustin' in, dependin' on, believin' in, relying on Anyone or anything

I live each day completely amazed By all that I've seen You do What a fool I would be if I let anything Come between me and You

Anything but You Anything but You, is only temporary Anything but You will quickly fade away I'm not trustin' in, dependin' on, believin' in, relying on Anyone or anything but You

Anything but You, is only temporary Anything but You will quickly fade away Anything but You Anyone or anything but You

Anything but You Anything but You Anything but You
