

Yea God

NewSong

When I woke up this morning
I just had to talk to God
And tell Him about some things on my heart
And the wonder of all wonders
He came right into my room
And told me I could have a new start

Then suddenly it came to me
My eyes were opened up to see
What a mighty God You really are

Yea God Yea God
Yea God Yea God
You alone are worthy to be praised
Yea God Yea God
Yea God Yea God
How beautiful and awesome are Your ways
Yea God

Well I opened up my Bible to the heroes of the Faith
And read about how they lived for You
How they trusted You with everything
No matter what the cost
And how every single time You came through

Then suddenly it came to me
My eyes were opened up to see
What a mighty God You really are

You're always there waiting for the call
Ready to come to our rescue
All we have to do is turn our hearts to You
