

Innocent

Newton Faulkner

If you think I am worth any trouble
Give me time and I'll make you change your mind
I'll take you out to the heart of the city
Watch your soul marinate in the city lights

But I don't deserve your kindness anyway
And your kindness only speeds my fall from grace
Innocent, I'm not innocent, I'm not

Don't wanna hide all the lies and illusion
I have learned to accept everything I am
If I care not for you, then I wouldn't Break your heart, I would take you and make you mine

'Cause I don't deserve your kindness anyway
And your kindness only speeds my fall from grace
Innocent, I'm not innocent, I'm not innocent, oh, no

I'm all that I can be
So take what you want of me
If that's not enough for you
Then there's nothing that I can do

Innocent, I'm not innocent, I'm not innocent
I'm not innocent, I'm not innocent
I'm not innocent
