

Laugh All You Want

Niceland

Laugh all you want
Swear all the words that come into your head talk all you want
do something
it is only gonna make me
laugh all you want
bring fire to this land of no hope
sit back, let's talk
you know
you gotta let it go

Laugh all you want
say, if you dare the world is gonna fail you all again
screw you again
today is not the time to laugh
laugh all you want
make yourself think it
is gonna hurt,
sit back, let's talk
you know
you gotta let it go

So let it go
let it eat out itself
it never hurts when you know you're gonna die one day and as your hope fills your lungs with a breath of every morn
you know
It will never make you happy

So let it go
there are tons of things to fear so one day you 're gonna go and just disappear but the clock is ticking slowly, remember you've been warned that it
will never make you happy
