

Sexy Guys Don't Dance

Niceland

Please, stop all this madness
Don't fix what's not broken Can't you see? Today's the day Tonight's the night.
When you stop, look and you tell me again

That it's over, sing along when it's over, I go home what comes over is always strong Break me over now...

Please, start all this madness again
Please fix what is so torn and long time broken
If you shine, the sun's still up The eclipse is gone, and you run, drown, you fool me all along it's over, over, come on I say it's over, all along it's over, over, go on It's never over... no...
