

Do You Ever Remember?

Nick Drake

Do you ever remember
Now you're so far away
Things that we used to laugh about
Crazy things we'd say
There were so many may times
When every word was a song
There were so many gay times
Before it all went oh so wrong
But time is ever a vagabond
Time was always a thief
Time can steal away happiness
But time can take away grief
So I won't try to remember
For that way leads to regret
No I won't try to remember
What I can never forget
