Dear God

Nick Jonas

Dear God I hate to be a bother, but I gotta say This world is getting crazier with every day I hope you'll hear me out now as I stop and pray Oh, Dear God People take your words and try to twist 'em round I know you can't be happy with what's goin' down I'm searchin' for some answers, but they can't be found Can you help me out, Dear God? Oh, Seams like, Everybody's searching for an easy solution They can't see beyond, the selfish world they're living in Your words of love get lost, in all the confusion, yes they do But I still believe someday you're gonna speak to me Dear God, Just the other night I heard somebody say What's the use believin' in you anyway I guess it was just heartache talkin' through the pain It's a cryin' shame Dear God, I know you're disappointed in the things we've done Can't they see the truth that they're all running from Try to preach your message with a loaded gun What they thinkin' of, Dear God Oh, Seams like Everybody's searching for an easy solution They can't see beyond, the selfish world they're living in Your words of love get lost, in all the confusion, oh yes they do But I still believe, someday you're gonna speak to me Dear God, I know you've got a million other calls to take You're dealing with a lot of things that just won't wait But there is one request that I just gotta make Ohh, Dear God Won't you send a sign down, just to ease my doubt I'm trying to hear you, but the silence is so loud I think I see a rainbow from behind the clouds And I hear you now, dear God
