Warning

I keep trying to escape From this cage that I live in This prison in my head Oh I own many mistakes From all the things I never did I carry my defense Now I'm running for the fences on my own

And I can see the warning Yeah I can see the warning, warning It's brighter than the morning, morning Keeps trying to turn me right around And it's all I ever wanted It's all I ever wanted, wanted I'm breaking the warning down, down

I, I got something inside Keeps burning my body til it's sore Keeps wanting more and more Oh and I, I'm gonna find I'm gonna find what I have lost Unlearn what I was taught Now I'm running for the fences on my own

And I can see the warning Yeah I can see the warning, warning It's brighter than the morning, morning Keeps trying to turn me right around And it's all I ever wanted It's all I ever wanted, wanted I'm breaking the warning down, down

I'm breaking the warning (I'm breaking the warning)
I'm breaking the warning (I'm breaking the warning)
I'm breaking the warning down
Now I'm running for the fences on my own

And I can see the warning Yeah I can see the warning, warning It's brighter than the morning, morning Keeps trying to turn me right around And it's all I ever wanted It's all I ever wanted, wanted I'm breaking the warning down, down

I'm breaking the warning
(Yeah I can see the warning, warning
It's brighter than the morning, morning)
I'm breaking the warning
(Keeps trying to turn me right around
And it's all I ever wanted)
I'm breaking the warning
(It's all I ever wanted, wanted
I'm breaking the warning down, down)
Breaking the warning down
