

Wonders of You

Nick Kamen

Wonders Of You
Kamen and G.Cole

Nothing makes me feel so good
As having you with me
I wake up to the sound of sweet music playing
It's ringing it's singing out of me

I can stand up and face tomorrow
Whatever comes my way
It's a brand new start
A celebration
A time to be happy can't you see

You sail the deepest ocean
Cross the widest sea
I finally know the meaning
Of what you give to me

Forever i'll treasure the wonders of you
Forever i'll treasure the wonders of you

Take me to your secret places
Your hidden fantasies
To lie beside you feel your heartbeat
It's where i want to be
If you ever go away
I'd surely fall apart
All i have is you
To hold on to
To guide me through my nights

I climb the highest mountain
Cross the widest sea
I finally know the meaning
Of what you give to me

Forever i'll treasure the wonders of you
Forever i'll treasure the wonders of you

Girl you are the reason for being alive
Without you there's no meaning to my life

Forever i'll treasure the wonders of you
Forever i'll treasure the wonders of you
