

I Must Be Getting Over You

Nick Lowe

I woke up today
feeling somethings wrong then I looked around and realized you had gone I did not sense your perfume like I always do
I Must Be Getting Over You

I went to the closet
I threw back the door
all your gowns and dresses were not there anymore thats when I knew that I was going to pull through and I Must Be Getting Over You

I Must Be Getting Over You
'cause today I saw a bluebird in my window
I Must Be Getting Over You
'cause today I saw the sun breaking through

I woke up today
something in the air then I realized it was because you were not there then I got down on my knees and gave thanks 'cause I knew
I Must Be Getting Over You

I Must Be Getting Over You
