

Soulful Wind

Nick Lowe

Soulful wind will be a blowing
Around my bed someday
The clouds that have been brooding
Will roll away
Everybody's waiting
For you to come in
And blow, soulful wind

Soulful wind I've been waiting
The longest time
Strong in faith
But heavy in heart
I know it get a whole lot better
After you begin
To blow, soulful wind

Soulful wind will cause the lion
To lay down with the dove
And the world to filled
With a powerful love
So I'll be waiting
Anticipating, sure and certain
It's gonna blow, soulful wind

Soulful wind will cause the lion
To lay down with the dove
And the world to filled
With a powerful love
So I'll be waiting, waiting, waiting
Anticipating, sure and certain
It's gonna blow,
Blow, blow, blow
Blow, soulful wind
