

Without Love

Nick Lowe

Without love, I am half human
Without love, I'm more machine
Without love, there's nothing doing
I will die without love

Without love, I am an island
All by myself in a heartbreak sea
Without love there's no denying
I am dying without love

For there is nowhere I can run
And there is no hiding place
Sticking out like a sore thumb
By the gloomy look upon my face

Without love, I'm incomplete
Without love, I am not whole
Without love, I'm barely on my feet
I am dying without love

For there is nowhere I can run
And there is no hiding place
Sticking out like a sore thumb
By the gloomy look upon my face

Without love, I'm incomplete
Without love, I am not whole
Without love, I'm barely on my feet
I am dying without love

I am dying without love
Oh yes, I'm dying without love
Oh yes, I'm dying without love
Oh yes, I'm dying without love
