Everything Fades

Nicky Wire

Everything fades Nothing stays Tied to a place We don't belong

Everything fades It may be delayed Frozen not dead But grey and decayed

Need a stranger to show me the the truth Need somebody to help me through

Everything fades It's no bad thing Trusting aside To what can we cling

Need a stranger to show me the the truth Need somebody to help me through In our decline we've ebbed and we've flowed Nothing gained and nothing to show

Everything fades O glorious day However we try You can't hold back time

Failure can Be good for your soul It tests your desires And leaves you alone

Need someone something somehow Serves to remember you as you are Need too shelter you from the storm Need a place that I can call home

Like a prayer I can hear you calling Like a prayer I can hear, hear you calling Like a prayer I can hear you calling out for me Like a prayer I can hear you calling
