

I Believe (Get Over Yourself)

Vega, Nico

I was standing in the corner,
When you walked in to come over.

You said:

"Come on girl, join the party. You look lonely."

And then suddenly I replied, I said

"I'm afraid of almost everything, I'm not sure what kind of songs to sing."

And when I met ya, you made me think.

That I could be almost anything, that I could rise above it all endlessly and you brought me back to life.

I believe,

I believe,

I believe,

That this is your life and it can rule you.

You believe that things are better when left unsaid.

Well you're a fool 'cause you don't believe anything good can happen to the people it should.

Well I believe in you,

So get over yourself.

No one had ever spoken to me like that.

Uh yeah, it kinda turned me on.

But I was foolin'

Actin' cool and

I was hopeless

Well I'm better off on my own.

Well I'm afraid of almost everything,

I'm not sure what kind of songs to sing.

And when I met ya, you made me think.

That I could be almost anything.

That I could rise above it all endlessly.

And you brought me back to life.

I believe,

I believe,

I believe,

That this is your life and it can rule you.

You believe that things are better when left unsaid.

Well you're a fool 'cause you don't believe anything good can happen to the people it should.

Well I believe in you.

So get over yourself.

I believe,

I believe,

I believe,

That this is your life and it can rule you.

You believe that things are better when left unsaid.

Well you're a fool 'cause you don't believe anything good can happen to people it should.

Well I believe in you.

So get over yourself.

And I'm so excited,

And I can't deny it.

No I won't hide it.
No I just can't fight it,
And I can't describe it.
I'm so excited.

I believe,
I believe,
I believe,
That this is your life and it can rule you.
You believe that things are better when left unsaid.
Well you're a fool 'cause you don't believe anything good can happen to the people it should.
Well I believe in you.
So get over yourself.

I believe,
I believe,
I believe,
That this is your life and it can rule you.
You believe that things are better when left unsaid.
Well you're a fool 'cause you don't believe anything good can happen to people it should.
Well I believe in you.
So get over yourself.

Don't you ruin your head,
Oh don't you ruin yourself.
Don't you let yourself down, oh no.
You've got to understand, let go.
No don't you ruin yourself.
I wanna help you.
I wanna get you.
I wanna help you out,
But you've got to let me in.
