

Porcelain Heart

Nicola Roberts

It beats so strong like a melody
Where do I belong?
You keep spinning me round, round, round
Don't want to come down, down, down
I'd love to play along in this harmony
Hear them sing along
You keep making me dance, dance, dance
We got them in a trance, trance, trance

As good as a gold
A traded soul
But I wouldn't change a single thing
My only friend
Let's dance again
But please don't break my porcelain heart

Please don't break my porcelain heart
Please don't break my porcelain heart

Never felt so much electricity
You shot her down, don't do that to me
Bang, bang, bang
Just because you can, can, can
We kicked off so quick,
Too much chemistry
I need my seatbelt fixed
You're making me learn, learn, learn
To like the way it burns, burns, buns

As good as a gold
A traded soul
But I wouldn't change a single thing
My only friend
Let's dance again
But please don't break my porcelain heart

Please don't break my porcelain heart
Please don't break my porcelain heart

(You're breaking my)
(You're breaking my)
(Please don't break my porcelain heart)
(Why you breaking my?)
(Don't break my porcelain)
(You're breaking my)
Ooh

As good as a gold
A traded soul
But I wouldn't change a single thing
My only friend
Let's dance again
But please don't break my porcelain
Heeeeeaaaaaart!

Please don't break my porcelain heart
Why you break my porcelain heart?

Please don't break my porcelain heart
Please don't break my porcelain heart
