

Forever You Reign

Nicole C. Mullen

Who can calm the raging storm?
Who can keep me safe from harm?
Who has an everlasting arm?
Nobody else, nobody else
And when I am lost, can't find my way?
When I am scared of come what may?
Who is my shelter and my strength?
Nobody else, nobody else

Blessed be Your name.
Blessed be the One
Who men and angels praise.
Blessed be Your name.
You are God and forever you reign.
You are God and forever you reign

Who can wash away my sin?
Who can cleanse me deep within?
Who conquered death and rose again?
Nobody else, nobody else.
And when life is beautiful and new.
When I? ve lost everything but you.
Whose promises will see me through?
Nobody else, nobody else.

Blessed be Your name.
Blessed be the One
Who men and angels praise.
Blessed be Your name.
You are God and forever you reign.
You are God and forever you reign
