

Yo Mama

Nicole C. Mullen

your mama so cool like a gentle breeze blowin on a summer day your mama got a way of sayin things that would chase all my pain away

i remember times
she looked me in the eyes and tell me i could win
'cuz when nobody else would take the time to care about a broken hearted kid
your mama did

your mama so strong
she could sure lift the troubles right out of me
your mama had a way of carvin out what i was supposed to be sometimes she would scold me stand up for me boldly challenge me to win

'cuz when nobody else would take the time
your mama did

and it makes me say
your mama did
your mama did

it makes me wanna say
your mama did
your mama did

your mama so smooth
i can soar on the wind underneath her wings

and the air of her encouragement is still blowin through my memories she helped me find my dreams show me what love means now this is how i live

i will do my best to show them that the love of God is something you can live and the only reason i have something good inside of me that i can give is your mama did

i'm so grateful that
