

At The Class Room

Nicotine

Good morning boys and girl. I am your substitute teacher. My name is Ms. Seagal.

The topic for today is: What you like to be when you grow up? You, over there in the jeans shirt, what you want to be when you grow up?

Why you gonna start with ya, brother? I wanna be a baseball player, brother.

Alright, that's a pretty good profession.

You, over there in the black shirt, what you want to be when you grow up?

I like to be a lawyer.

All right, that's a pretty good profession too. Hey you, in the back, an asian boy.

What's your name?

My name is Howie.

Hi Howie! What you want to be when you grow up?

I wanna be a motherfuckin' punk rock, to get the liberty.
