

Rein Of Fire

Nicotine

They drink the blood and sweat of all
Like vultures on carcass
Inject our veins with a "great divide"
And make us fall apart
They care for none, with ravenous minds
All filled with disguise
They kill for gold, they kill for whores
Until they fuck our lives

With a "Rein of Fire"
They try to refrain our today
But we'll break all the chains, and regain
It's a prologue to end all the pain
