Rein Of Fire

Nicotine

They drink the blood and sweat of all Like vultures on carcass Inject our veins with a "great divide" And make us fall apart They care for none, with ravenous minds All filled with disguise They kill for gold, they kill for whores Until they fuck our lives

With a "Rein of Fire" They try to refrain our today But we'll break all the chains, and regain It's a prologue to end all the pain