

Bleed Afresh

Night In Gales

I walk on ways of sadness
To see the frustration of truth
Hope that it will be endless
To see that i am real
You say i'm a sacred one
One to devastate
My soul will bleed afresh
My echo is one of few
Thoughts full of helplessness
Captured and deceased
A god should never be so blind...
But there's a time when
Everything falls apart
Won't someone tell me
That i'm just created
Won't someone tell me in time
Won't someone call a break
Of breath in my ear
I took this way into reality
To see the frustration of truth
War of the merciless
Won't they understand
What i feel
I just touched the
Chain of the moon
A chain that beats me down
My soul will bleed afresh
My soul has seen the view
