

Why Does Love Have To Change

Night Ranger

The old words
Don't mean the same anymore
Time makes the change
As the faces begin to age

Through the eyes
Things look different than before
Spark and the flame
It'll never be the same
Never be the same

Why does love have to change Oh...

The old place
Don't seem the same anymore
Yesterday's dreams
Lie discarded on the bedroom floor

In the heart
Will the pain go away
Time heals the wounds
But the scars seem to always stay
To haunt you another day

Why does love have to change Oh...
Why does love have to change Oh...

It's a hard way to go
Should'a left when my feelings showed
You had a hold on my soul
Oh no more
It's the end of your reign
I still think it's strange
Why does love have to change

Why does love have to change Yeah oh yeah
Why does love have to change Oh...
