Astra Planeta - We Chose The Sun

Times where eyes come to rest Elliptic shaped lights profile Andromeda's solar breasts So gigantic, monstruous, fire Blast The kiss of stars, explode Galaxies unite Inner hyper force to form Dark surrounds the space Lights suffer Frequencies thrive Grand buster Dark clouds dominate my wrath Approaching end of cycle From coma come to life We are about to fall But we chose the sun Sterling sun We are about to fall Believe it We are about to fall Can you feel it? We are about to fall Can't you see it? But we chose the sun Sterling sun Play with your silent parts A shadow ready to transform Don't let your self in scripts of pessimism Don't let it drown Fate Shows her ugly face Stare at the sun now An orison asks your grace We are about... We are about to fall But we chose the sun Sterling sun We are about to fall Believe it We are about to fall Can you feel it? We are about to fall Can't you see it? But we chose the sun Sterling sun We are about to fall
