

Poetry Of Death

Nightfall

Listen to the tunes of doom
Sing the lyrics of sadness
Awake, upon your grateful tomb
Be part of the kingdom of darkness

Grateful sorrow deep within my heart
Captured by the feeling of desire
The one I've always searched in dark
The one that burns me like glowing fire

Grand warriors messengers with burning eyes
Giving me wings for flying away
As I feel my body, it dies
Let my soul join the pale sky's grey

I'll soon be back
As the legends used to say
A night, blazed, right into dark
Or a day with its sky full of grey

Poetry of death
Written deep within the soul of the man
Followed by orchestrical tunes nonplayed
