

Thoughts

Nightfall

Sit by me, my friend
Enjoy eternal life
Listen to my words
They might be wise...

Why people cry for the end
Why do they scare for death
While they're believing in Eternal life which gives them the chance to rest ... in time ...

Questions've made by the secrets of my mind
While I'm thinking how I'll be ... dying

"Finishing your life"
"Finishing the pain"
It's a risk to believe what they say

I hear the voices of millions of men
Belong to the past they still remain
Souls in dust, memories craft
Release your thoughts I'll support you
