Nightmares

You love to watch me crawl on my hands and knees across the broken glass that you laid for me

Every night I realize that every night I'm stuck
Just like another fucking victim being pushed in the wind

I just want the eye of the storm to take my mind off
Whats surrounding me

Hurricane, Hurricane
Bringing pain to all you meet
Suffering is all you breed

Hurricane, you're just a hurricane
Run from shelter wait for rain, cause when it pours I know
Here comes the hurricane

There was a home here once
But you destroy the same
When the lightning struck I knew you were out to get me

I just want the eye of the storm to take my mind off this fucki ng life

Hurricane, Hurricane
Bringing pain to all you meet
Suffering is all you breed

Hurricane, you're just a hurricane
Run from shelter wait for rain, cause when it pours I know
Here comes the hurricane

Hurricane
I don't want this anymore, I don't want this anymore
Hurricane, Hurricane
I don't wanna feel this way but it's never gonna change

Hurricane, you're just a hurricane
Bringing pain to all you meet
Suffering is all you breed

Hurricane, you're just a hurricane
Run from shelter wait for rain, cause when it pours i know
