

Hands Of The Ripper

Nightmares

You just wanna crucify me

My arms are tired from beating the horse of your reality
Revenge is fucked when you're stuck with the pain
Here are the last words that I scream at you
"It's hard to act like I care"
But I do

I'm waiting around to feel your heart again
But you never cared enough to let me in
Everyone said that we were meant to be
But now I'm awake and I can see
You just wanna crucify me
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down
You just wanna crucify me
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down

They say there's nothing left to burn
When the flames are blue
But I can tell it's a lie cause I'm over you
Nothing left to burn
When it's burning you
Yeah I can tell it's a lie
It was always a lie

It was always a lie
It was always a lie

Here are the last words that I scream at you
"It's hard to act like I care"
But I do

I'm waiting around to feel your heart again
But you never cared enough to let me in
Everyone said that we were meant to be
But now i'm awake and I can see
You just wanna crucify me
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down
You just wanna crucify me
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down

You want to keep me a secret?
But i'm not gonna keep this quiet

So get the fuck over yourself

Crucify me
Everyone said that we were meant to be
But now I'm awake
Now I'm awake

I'm waiting around to feel your heart again
But you never cared enough to let me in
Everyone said that we were meant to be
But now I'm awake and I can see
You just wanna crucify me
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down

You just wanna crucify me
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down

Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down
Cause everyone needs a hand to hold down
