

Let The Right One In

Nightmares

Keep talking slowly cause it feels like the first time
I never thought that pain could feel so good

On the first day
The american gods
Created a world for your eyes to see

On the next day
The american gods
Created a man to watch him bleed
Just to watch him bleed
Now you're the judas for me

I don't want to wait to live forever
So I'm letting go
I'll sink below, I'll sink below

I don't want to wait to live forever
So I'm letting go
I'll sink below, I'll sink below

What can you offer me that you're okay to sacrifice?
You live in fear until the sun burns you out

How can I live with the lies?
Because I'm living a lie
Were you hoping to crash?
Because it happened too fast

I don't want to wait to live forever
So I'm letting go
I'll sink below, I'll sink below

I don't want to wait to live forever
So I'm letting go
I'll sink below, I'll sink below

On the first day
The american gods

On the next day
The american gods

We don't want to wait to live forever
So we're letting go

We don't want to wait to live forever
So we'll sink below, so we'll sink below

We don't want to wait to live forever (3x)
So we're letting go
We'll sink below, so we'll sink below
