Shed the Blood

Nightrage

Never turned like the slime that I always knew you were Can't stand this life my soul lay in a pool of blood Egocentric high ideals and rotten ways

Hatred, heartache A few of my modes Hatred, heartache More than you will ever believe

Dominate, recriminate Your slave infected role Time after time I stare into vacancy

Deteriorate, investigate What drives you to goal? Lie after lie is my only reality

A solitary spot A soul lost Shed the blood of my inner fears

Searching into the silent beauty of a nightmare Near empty cold lines and tribulations

SHED THE BLOOD

As passion slips by your side, once again I SHED THE BLOOD!
