

The days were brighter
Gardens more blooming
The nights had more hope
In their silence The wild was calling
Wishes were whispering
The time was there
But without a meaning

Away, away, away in time
Every dream's a journey away
Away, away to a home away from care
Everywhere's just a journey away

The days departed
Gardens deserted
This frail world
My only rest ?

The wild calls no more
Wishes so hollow
The Barefoot Boy
Weeping in an empty night

Away, away, away in time
Every dream's a journey away
Away, away to a home away from care
Everywhere's just a journey away

Cherish the moment
Tower the skies
Don't let the dreamer
Fade to grey like grass

No falling for life
A gain for every loss
Time gathered me
But kept me flying

Away, away, away in time
Every dream's a journey away

Away, away, away in time
Every dream's a journey away
Away, away to a home away from care
Everywhere's just a journey away

"For this gift of dream I must pay the price
With the loss of life's pleasures"
