Bare Grace Misery

Sweet boy, come in I am the dark side of you Die for my sins Like the One once did

Cinnamon bed For your unashamed appetite A figurante

This dance will hurt like hell Oh, bare grace misery Just a child without a fairytale am I Dark but so lovely Little Match Girl freezing in the snow Love lying, enticing (Bare grace misery) Crowning the moment (Bare grace misery)

This is what I am Bare grace for the end of days

Romantic scent Spoiled Lucrece lies warm for you There's no such priest

That can pray me to heaven When done with me Forget if you think I feel ashamed A wild thing Never felt sorry for anything

Love lying, enticing (Bare grace misery) Crowning the moment (Bare grace misery)

This is what I am Bare grace for the end of days
