

Runaway

Nik Kershaw

Runaway, Runaway, Runaway from me

I can't believe I did that
I didn't think it through
I made you cry
Now I could die
I'd run if I were you

Not like you didn't warn me
I've had my second chance
I'd seize the day
And walk away
Without a backward glance

But
If you leave me, can I come too
Can I jump aboard and ride with you
Together we'd be starting new
Without me in the way
If you leave me, can I come too
Can I be the one to tell him he's done?

Runaway, Runaway, Runaway from me
(with me)

I can't believe I said that
I should've watched my mouth
I've got a nerve
You don't deserve
The pain that I dish out

I've got a bad, bad feeling
I haven't finished yet
I'd say "I'm done"
The cut and run
As far as I could get

I wouldn't blame you
I wouldn't blame you

But
If you leave me, can I come too
Can I jump aboard and ride with you
Together we'd be starting new
Without me in the way
If you leave me, can I come too
Can I be the one to tell him he's done?

Runaway, Runaway, Runaway from me
(with me)
