

Fooled Ya Baby

Nikka Costa

I hid my heart in self-defense
I felt the break and consequence
Never to return to meltin' feelings inside
I told myself I wouldn't fall again

Even in the light of day
You'll never see
How much I feel for you baby
Or how much you mean to me

'Cause I fooled ya baby, fooled ya baby
I'm going crazy wishin' I could tell ya
I fooled ya baby, fooled ya baby
But now you're in love with somebody else
I fooled ya baby, fooled ya baby
I wish I could tell ya how much I love ya
I fooled ya baby, fooled ya baby
But I'm the fool

I bit my lip in ignorance
I kept it quiet and sat on the fence
Never thought it made a difference
But my time has come and gone
I never took the chance

I count the hours till I see your face
I'd stop the world from turning out in outer space
I'd get back the time that's been erased
Just to feel you near me, just to hear you say
That I'm yours till the day you die
And ain't nobody else in your life
'Cause nobody ever made me feel
Sexy like I was wearing a new pair of heels
